590:35-13-5. Death Prior to January 1, 2022

This Section shall be effective for Participant deaths prior to January 1, 2022.

(a) If the Participant dies prior to receiving Plan benefits, or the Participant dies while benefits are being paid to the Participant under the Plan and before such benefits have been exhausted, the benefits payable under this Plan shall be paid to the designated Beneficiary of the Participant in accordance with the distribution option selected by the Participant or the Beneficiary.

(b) Distributions must be made primarily for the benefit of the Participant (or former Participant). Therefore, distribution which begins prior to the death of a Participant must be in a form such that the total benefit amount will be paid over a period not to exceed the life expectancy of the Participant and a designated Beneficiary. Any amount not distributed to the Participant during his or her lifetime shall be distributed after the death of the Participant at least as rapidly as under the method of distribution used as of the date of his or her death. In addition, if the Participant dies prior to the commencement of distributions, the Participant's Account shall be distributed to the Beneficiary, commencing within one year of the employee's death, over the life of such Beneficiary (or over a period not extending beyond the life expectancy of such Beneficiary) but not to exceed 15 years; provided however if such Beneficiary is the surviving spouse of the Participant, then (i) such distributions shall, in all events, commence no later than December 31 of the calendar year in which the Participant would have attained age 70 1/2 (or such other date as may be permitted under applicable Treasury Regulations), and (ii) benefits payable to such spouse shall be completed during a period not in excess of such spouse's life expectancy. Life expectancies will not be recalculated annually.

This Plan, ~~at the Board of Trustee's discretion,~~ may make or receive plan-to-plan transfers to or from other qualified plans, provided the requirements of ~~Code Section 414(1)~~ federal law are met.

590:35-13-9. Rollovers to eligible retirement plan

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this Section, a distributee may elect, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Plan Administrator, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Eligible rollover distribution" means any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under Code Section 401(a)(9); the portion of any other distribution(s) that is not includible in gross income, except to the extent provided by paragraph (c) of this section; and effective for distributions made after December 31, 2001, any amount that is distributed on account of hardship shall not be an eligible rollover distribution and the distributee may not elect to have any portion of such a distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan.

(2) "Eligible retirement plan" means an individual retirement account described in Code Section 408(a), an individual retirement annuity described in Code Section 408(b), or a qualified trust described in Code Section 401(a), or Roth individual annuity (if the individual is eligible for a Roth rollover) described in Code Section 408(A)(e) for distributions made after December 31, 2007, that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution. Effective for distributions made after December 31, 2001, an eligible retirement plan shall also mean an annuity contract described in Code Section 403(b) and an eligible plan under Code Section 457(b) which is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or political subdivision of a state and which agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into such plan from this Plan. Effective for distributions made after December 18, 2015, an eligible retirement plan includes a SIMPLE IRA as described in Code § 408(p), provided that the rollover contribution is made after the two-year period beginning on the date the distributee first participated in any qualified salary reduction arrangement maintained by the distributee's employer under Code § 408(p)(2), as described in Code § 72(t)(6). The definition of eligible retirement plan shall also apply in the case of a distribution to a surviving spouse, or to a spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relation order, as defined in Code Section 414(p).

However, such a portion may be transferred only to an individual retirement account or an individual retirement annuity described in section Code Section 408(a) or (b) of the Code, a qualified plan described in section Code Sections 401(a) or 403(a) of the Code, or to an annuity contract described in section Code Section 403(b) of the Code that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred, including separately accounting for the portion of such distribution which is includible in gross income and the portion of such distribution which is not so includible.

(d) Effective January 1, 2007, a non-spouse beneficiary pursuant to section Code Section 402(c)(11) of the Code may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an individual retirement account described in section Code Section 408(a) of the Code, or an individual retirement annuity described in section Code Section 408(b) of the Code, established for the purpose of receiving the distribution. A rollover pursuant to this paragraph shall be treated as a rollover of an eligible rollover distribution only for purposes of section Code Section 402(c) of the Code.
