- Section 590:25-3-3. Discontinuation
- Section 590:25-3-4. New employees
- Section 590:25-3-5. Over Age 50 Catch-up Limits

590:25-3-1. Election limits

(a) The Employee may elect to participate in this Plan and consent to the Employer deferring a predetermined amount equivalent to at least Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) a month, including Roth Elective Deferrals. Effective January 1, 2002, the maximum that may be deferred under the Plan for the taxable year shall not exceed the lesser of the maximum amount allowed each year as determined by the Internal Revenue Service or one hundred percent (100%) of the employee's includable compensation. For purposes of the Plan, only compensation from the Employer that is attributable to services performed for Employer may be includable in gross income.

Compensation includes payments made by the later of 2 1/2 months after severance from employment or the end of the calendar year that includes the date of the Participant's severance from employment if they are payments that, absent a severance from employment, would have been paid had the Participant continued in employment with the Employer and are:

- (1) Regular compensation for services during the Participant's regular working hours, or compensation for services outside the Employee's regular work hours (such as overtime or shift differential), commissions, bonuses, or other similar payments, and the compensation would have been paid to the Participant prior to a severance from employment if the Participant had continued employment with the Employer; or
- (2) payments for unused accrued bona fide sick, vacation or other leave, but only if the Participant would have been able to use the leave if employment had continued; or
- (3) payments pursuant to a nonqualified unfunded deferred compensation plan, but only if the payments would have been paid to the Qualified Participant at the same time if the Participant had continued employment with the Employer and only to the extent that the payment is includible in the Qualified Participant's gross income.

(b) Includable compensation excludes amounts converted under the State's Internal Revenue Code Section 125 Plan and employee retirement contributions that are tax-deferred. The deferment will commence no sooner than the first pay period of the month following the date the enrollment application is properly completed by the Employee and accepted by the Plan Administrator.

Effective January 1, 2002, the Plan provides for a limited catch-up election which will permit a Participant to defer the lesser of two times the applicable IRS limit for the year or the alternate catch-up limit.

(b) This election is only available once. A Participant may use the catch up limitation only if not previously used under this or any other plan. The election may be made no sooner than the last three taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year in which the Participant reaches Normal retirement age. It can be made with respect to all three (3) years.

590:25-3-3. Discontinuation and deferral change

(a) The election of the Employee to participate under this Plan and the amount of compensation to be deferred is continuous, except that the Employee may discontinue participation, change his or her deferral amount, or change the amount designated as Pre-Tax Elective Deferrals or Roth Elective Deferrals, at any time during the year by giving authenticated notice the month prior to the effective date of such change. Unless otherwise designated by the Participant, any deferrals under the Plan shall be treated as Pre-Tax Elective Deferrals.

(b) An Employee who elects to discontinue participation shall not again become eligible to participate in the Plan until one (1) month has elapsed from the Discontinuation Date, or as provided in 590:25-9-12.

590:25-3-5. Over Age 50 Catch-up Limits

(a) In addition to the maximum limits under 590:25-3-1, the Plan provides for a special catch-up for all Participants who have attained age 50 before the close of the plan year. Such additional contributions shall be in accordance with, and subject to the limitations of Section 414(v) of the Internal Revenue Code. Effective January 1, 2025, the adjusted dollar amount under Section 414(v)(2)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to Participants who will attain age 60 but will not attain age 64 by the end of the calendar year. The applicable dollar amount and the adjusted dollar amount under this paragraph (a) shall be increased by cost-of-living to the extent provided under Section 414(v) of the Internal Revenue Code for such calendar year. Such catch-up contributions shall not be considered for purposes of the provisions of the plan implementing the required limitations of section 457 of the Internal Revenue Code. This catch-up may not be used in the same years the Participant is using the election under 590:25-3-2.

(b) Effective January 1, 2026, or such later effective date determined by the Secretary of the Treasury through guidance, with respect to a Participant whose wages within the meaning of Section 3121(a) of the Internal Revenue Code from the Employer for the preceding calendar year exceed the limitation under Section 414(v)(7)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, paragraph (a) of this section shall apply only if the Participant elects, or is deemed to have elected, the additional amount of Elective Deferrals to be made as Roth Elective Deferrals. Roth Elective Deferrals will be credited and debited to the Roth Elective Deferral Subaccount maintained for each Participant. The Recordkeeper for the Plan may determine the increase or decrease in the fair market value of the Participant's Account in each of the investments on a cash, share or unit accounting basis. Whenever an event requires a determination of the value of the Participant's Accounts, the value shall be computed as of a Valuation Date coincident with or following the date of the event. Upon approval of the Plan Administrator, the employee may double the deferral in the first possible month following discovery of the error in order to establish participation as originally intended. Solely for purposes of determining eligibility for any employer contribution, the employee's participation in the Plan will then be deemed to have begun in the month for which that deferral should have originally occurred. If the application and justification for payment is approved by the Plan Administrator, payment will generally be processed by the Recordkeeper within ten (10) business days upon authorization from the Plan. Benefits to be paid shall be limited strictly to that amount needed to meet the emergency situation constituting financial hardship. Any remaining benefits shall be paid in accordance with this Chapter. Effective February 1, 2002, two (2) or more emergency withdrawals paid will result in cancellation of that Participant's deferrals into the Plan for a period of not less than six (6) months following payment of the emergency withdrawal. For purposes of this rule any emergency withdrawals since the Participant's initial enrollment into the Plan will be considered when applying this rule except that no cancellation will occur until the Participant has had a subsequent emergency withdrawal after February 1, 2002. 590:25-9-17. Rollovers to other plans

(a) Effective January 1, 2002, notwithstanding any provisions of the Plan to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this Section, a distributee may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Eligible retirement plan", for purposes of a direct rollover, shall mean a qualified trust described in Section 401(a) of the Code, an individual retirement account described in Section 408(a) of the Code, an individual retirement annuity described in Section 408(b) of the Code, or a Roth individual annuity (if the individual is eligible for a Roth rollover) described in Section 408(A)(e) for distributions made after December 31, 2007, that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution. Effective for distributions made after December 31, 2001, an eligible retirement plan shall also mean an annuity contract described in Section 403(b) of the Code and an eligible plan under Section 457(b) of the Code which is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or political subdivision of a state and which agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into such plan from this Plan. Effective for distributions made after December 18, 2015, an eligible retirement plan includes a SIMPLE IRA as described in Code § 408(p), provided that the rollover contribution is made after the two-year period beginning on the date the distributee first participated in any qualified salary reduction arrangement maintained by the distributee's employer under Code § 408(p)(2), as described in Code § 72(t)(6). The definition of eligible retirement plan shall also apply in the case of a distribution to a surviving spouse, or to a spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in Section 414(p) of the Code.

(2) "Eligible rollover distribution" means any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include (i) any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the designated beneficiary of the distributee, or for a specified period of ten (10) years or more; (ii) any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under Section 401(a)(9) of the Code; (iii) the portion of any distribution that is not includable in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities); or (iv) any amount that is distributed on account of hardship.

(3) "Distributee" includes a Participant or a Participant's surviving spouse, or for the limited purposes set forth in paragraph (c) of this section, a non-spouse beneficiary.

(c) Effective January 1, 2007, a non-spouse beneficiary pursuant to Section 402(c)(11) of the Code may elect to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an individual retirement account described in Section 408(a) of the Code, or an individual retirement annuity described in Section 408(b) of the Code, established for the purpose of receiving the distribution. A rollover pursuant to this paragraph shall be treated as a rollover of an eligible rollover distribution only for purposes of Section 402(c) of the Code.

(d) Except as otherwise provided, this section shall apply to distributions made after December 31, 2001.

590:25-9-20. Federal qualified military service

(a) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Plan to the contrary, contributions, benefits, and service credit with respect to qualified military service shall be provided in accordance with the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 ("USERRA"), the Heroes Earnings Assistance and Relief Tax Act of 2008 ("HEART"), and Section 414(u) of the Code.

(b) A Qualified Participant whose employment is interrupted by qualified military service under Section 414(u) of the Code or who is on a leave of absence for qualified military service under Section 414(u) may elect to make additional deferrals to the Plan upon resumption of employment with the Employer equal to the maximum annual deferrals that the Participant could have elected during that period if the Participant's employment with the Employer had continued (at the same level of Compensation) without the interruption or leave, reduced by the annual deferrals, if any, actually made for the Participant during the period of the interruption or leave. This right applies to five (5) years following the resumption of employment, if sooner, for a period equal to three times the period of the interruption or leave. The Employer, in accordance with 74 O.S. §1701, will make the Employer Contribution for such Qualified Participant for the equivalent period.

This provision shall be applied to all similarly situated individuals in a reasonable equivalent manner.

(d) Effective January 1, 2007, death benefits payable under this Plan shall be paid in accordance with Section 401(a)(37) of the Code, which provides that in the case of a Participant who dies while performing qualified military service (as defined in Section 414(u) of the Code), the survivors of the Participant are entitled to any additional benefits (other than benefit accruals relating to the period of qualified military service) that the Plan would otherwise provide had had the Participant resumed and then terminated employment with the Employer on account of death. 590:25-9-21. Discontinuance of 2009 required minimum distributions

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of 590:25-9-1 through 25-9-5 of these rules, a participant or beneficiary who would have been required to receive required minimum distributions for 2009 but for the enactment of Section 401(a)(9)(H) of the Internal Revenue Code ("2009 RMDs"), and who would have satisfied that requirement by receiving distributions that are (1) equal to the 2009 RMDs or (2) one or more payments in a series of substantially equal distributions (that include the 2009 RMDs) made at least annually and expected to last for the life (or life expectancy) of the participant, the joint lives (or joint life expectancy) of the participant and the participant's designated beneficiary, or for a period of at least 10 years ("Extended 2009 RMDs"), will receive those distributions for 2009 unless the participant or beneficiary chooses not to receive such distributions. Participants and beneficiaries described in the preceding sentence will be given the opportunity to elect to stop receiving the distributions described in the preceding sentence. In addition, notwithstanding 590:25-9-17 of these rules, and solely for the purposes of applying the direct rollover provisions of the plan, certain additional distributions in 2009 will be treated as eligible rollover distributions.

(b) For purposes of the direct rollover provisions of the plan, both 2009 RMDs and Extended RMDs will be eligible rollover distributions without regard to IRS Section 401(a)(9)(H).

590:25-9-23. Death after December 31, 2021

Notwithstanding any contrary provisions, effective for Participant deaths after December 31, 2021, the following distribution provisions shall take effect; provided, however, that such provisions shall be subject to any regulations or other guidance issued under the SECURE Act:

(1) If the Participant dies before the distribution of their entire account (regardless of whether any distributions had begun before the Participant's death) and the Participant has a designated Beneficiary:

(A) The entire Account shall be distributed to the designated Beneficiary by December 31 of the calendar year containing the tenth anniversary of the Participant's death.

(B) Notwithstanding paragraph (1)(A), if the designated Beneficiary is an eligible designated Beneficiary, then the eligible designated Beneficiary may elect for the Participant's Account(s) to be distributed:

- (i) by December 31 of the calendar year containing the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Participant's death, or

If the eligible designated Beneficiary is the surviving spouse, payment under item (ii) is not required until the later of December 31 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which the Participant died or December 31 of the calendar year in which the Participant would have attained the applicable age as permitted by the federal Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(9)(C)(v). If the eligible designated Beneficiary does not elect a method of distribution as provided above, the Participant's Account(s) shall be distributed in accordance with item (ii).

(C) Upon either:

- (i) the death of an eligible designated Beneficiary before distribution of the Participant's entire account or
- (ii) the attainment of the age of majority for an eligible designated Beneficiary who is a minor child under subsection (4), paragraph (B) shall no longer apply, and the remainder of the account shall be distributed under paragraph (1)(A).

(2) If the Participant dies before distributions of their Account begins and the Participant has no designated Beneficiary, the Participant's Account under the Plan shall be distributed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Participant's death. If the Participant dies after distribution of their Account begins and the Participant has no designated Beneficiary, any remaining portion of the Account shall continue to be distributed at least as rapidly as under the method of distribution in effect at the time of the Participant's death.

(3) Any distribution required under the incidental death benefit requirements of Code Section 401(a) shall be treated as distributions required under 590:25-9-23.

(4) For purposes of this section, "Eligible Designated Beneficiary" means a designated Beneficiary who, as of the date of the death of the Participant, is:

- (A) the surviving spouse of the Participant;
- (B) a child of the Participant who has not reached the age of majority;

- (E) any other individual who is not more than ten (10) years younger than the Participant. Notwithstanding the preceding, a child described in (4)(B) above shall cease to be an eligible designated Beneficiary as of the date they reach the age of majority.

590:25-15-2. Payments from Trust Fund

(a) The Recordkeeper shall make payments from the Trust Fund to such persons in such manner, at such times and in such amounts as the Board, acting through the Plan Administrator, shall direct. The Recordkeeper shall be fully protected in making, discontinuing, or stopping payments from the Trust Fund in accordance with the directions of the Board and/or the Plan Administrator. (c) The Board, acting through the Plan Administrator and/or Recordkeeper is authorized, to the extent required under applicable law, to withhold from distributions to any payee such sum as the Board determines is necessary to cover federal and state taxes for which the Board may be liable, which are, or may be, assessed with regard to the amount distributable to such payee, in accordance with Section 15 of Subchapter 9 of Chapter 25. Upon discharge or settlement of such tax liability the Board shall pay the balance of such sum, if any, to such payee or to his estate. Prior to making any payment or distribution hereunder, the Board may require such releases or other documents from any lawful taxing authority and may require such indemnity from any payee or distributee as the Board shall reasonably deem necessary for its protection.
